About IISC AANA

We are the alumni of the Indian Institute of Science \(IISc\), Bangalore, India, who live in North America. This group serves as a common platform for all alums across all disciplines, and years of study at IISc to share and collaborate on research and industry ideas. Our goal is to bring every alum into a single network to reconnect with each other, with the Institute, and to forge new connections. – See more at: <http://www.iiscaana.org/about-us/>
